William Corbin of the recently closed Continental Building and Loan Association of San Francisco will probably be charged with perjury or falsification of records.

The police department of New York has asked for $3,000,000 additional for next year's budget.

A crazy man was arrested in the La Crosse, Wis., offices of the Standard Oil Company, where he was demanding $419,000,000 which he claimed John D. owed him.

Plans are being perfected to regulate clocks on vessels at sea by wireless flashes sent all over the world.

Isadora Duncan, the Greek dancer, has purchased a historic Paris chateau, famous for the high jinks held there just previous to the French revolution.

The Kaiserin's health is causing grave anxiety. Her many small ills seem to indicate a growing general weakness.

The French government is taking drastic border precautions because of increasing smuggling in motor cars.

Two men in Rome fought a duel for a girl's hand. The girl lost. Both men were killed.

Christabel Pankhurst, the British suffragette, eluded the police by hiding in one of King George's palaces, where she was immune from arrest. She was hidden away by a court lady.

Federal officers are hemming in Orozco, and so far the rebel general has not gotten out of the trap in which he was caught.

Governor Johnson of California has left for a national stumping tour for the Progressives.

Mrs. Turnbull of Boston, who spent her money trying to prove she was once "Lucky" Baldwin's widow, and thus share in his fortune, is bankrupt.

Charles Schwab, steel magnate, was robbed of $2000 on a Pennsylvania train. It was taken from his berth while he slept.

One of the most wonderful balls ever given in Newport was the recent one given by Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. It was an Oriental evening and, it is estimated, cost $100,000.

Part of Los Angeles' water system is threatened by an enormous forest fire which started in the San Gabriel mountains.

A Chicago court held that employees have a right to strike even where there is no trade dispute. The decision is far reaching and an effort is being made to have the court reverse itself.

Mrs. Clarence Mackay was painfully injured in Massachusetts in an automobile accident.

The world's 100-mile motorcycle record was broken by Don Clark of Columbus at the recent race in Cleveland. His time was 95 minutes 10 seconds.

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel Sts.
